Dear Hal,

Thanks for the stuff on the Stern case and LaPrade. I can't quite crank myself up to do it. Am off to Alaska day after tomorrow and I guess I don't want to do anything that isn't 1. very easy or 2. a good lead as (potentially) in that King-Pierce story and some of the others we've done together. If I think of the cost to the taxpayer of the coverups I've known about, I'd go crazy. We'd all go crazy.

Best,

JA
